

Purple Room Spanish Curriculum
HS Spanish II, Part II
Corinne McCoy

Materials:

- Boyles, Peggy, et.al. Realidades 2, New Jersey: Prentice Hall, 2004
- Accompanying workbook and video series
- Supplemental material such as prompts, books, music, games, videos
- Rowling, J.K., Harry Potter y la piedra filosofal, Barcelona: Salamandra, 1999

Description: This class is equivalent to the second half of High School Spanish II. This class is conducted in Spanish. There is a heavy emphasis on grammatical structures and writing activities, reading, speaking and listening skills. The students will be exposed to authentic material (both written and spoken).

Evaluation: The student's grade in this class will be determined using the following criteria:

- In-class participation (25%): Class participation is essential to improve language skills. Willingness to use the language in class is expected. Keeping a good attitude and an open mind in class is very important. Being respectful to the cultural differences we will study is crucial.
- Homework (15%): We will have about 15 minutes of homework per night, almost every Monday and Wednesday, and some Fridays. Homework must be ready on the due day. It should be neat and show effort. There will also be some long term assignments.
- Assessments (45%): Assessments will be in the form of exams, quizzes, and oral presentations. Exams will be announced at least a week in advanced. Quizzes will be short (5-10 minutes) and will include one or two items (grammar or vocabulary) we have studied in class. I will announce them, but usually only one or two classes ahead of time. Oral presentations will also be announced at least one week in advanced.
- Writing (5%): These are writing assignments done in class as well as for homework.
- Projects (10%): I will give more information about these later, but they will include some research, a visual (such as a poster or prompt), and an oral presentation.

Topics: This class covers the Virginia Standards Of Learning and the National Language Standards for High School Spanish II. This includes the following topics:

- Vocabulary: Describing your childhood, games, pastimes, hobbies, holiday celebrations, emergencies and heroic acts, television and movies, food and cooking, travel and tourism, professions and the future.
- Grammar: Review of verb system in the indicative mood, affirmative and negative words, sentence structure, reflexive and reciprocal verbs, possessive and demonstrative adjectives, preterite/imperfect, pronouns, commands, present progressive, imperfect tense, imperfect progressive, impersonal "se", present tense of the subjunctive mood, future and conditional tenses
- Culture: Students will be introduced throughout the year to countries and cultures of the Spanish-speaking world with emphasis on geography, education, human relations, holidays and celebrations, food, music, art, and crafts.